Crimes in Bihar

1043. SHRI MOTIUR RAHMAN: Will the Minister of HOME AFFAIRS be pleased to state:

(a) the details of kidnappings, murders and dacoities that took place during the current spell of President's Rule in Bihar;

(b) whether it is a fact that such crimes have increased; and

(c) if so, the reasons therefor and the steps being taken to meet the situation?

THE MINISTER OF STATE IN THE MINISTRY OF HOME AFFAIRS (SHRI MANIKRAO HODLYA GAVIT): (a) to (c) The current period of President's Rule in Bihar commenced in March 2005. As per information compiled by NCRB, 633 cases of kidnapping, 891 cases of murder and 325 cases of dacoity were reported during the period from March, 2005 to May, 2005. As compared to the figures of kidnapping (536), murder (1056) and dacoity (297) for the corresponding period of 2004, incidents of kidnapping and dacoity have increased, whereas, incidents of murder have declined. A mixed trend is, therefore, discernible and consequently it may be inappropriate to attribute any specific reason as contributing to the observed trends.

With a view to curb the crime of kidnapping for ransom, an action plan was prepared by the State Government for the prevention, documentation, investigation and trial aspect of such crimes. Surveillance over gangsters and intensive patrolling in the affected areas have been introduced, and the Special Task Force (STF) constituted by State Police is also being utilized for dealing with organised crimes and kidnapping gangs.
